

Language used by Wolf Experts

What does each of these words mean?

(Hint: three of the definitions can be found by watching Wolf Expert Virtual Learning Video 2 and one by watching Wolf Expert Virtual Learning Video 1.)

Lithe (pronounced LIH) – Flexible, moving easily and gracefully, such as a wolf dodging back and forth chasing prey

Pack (as in wolf pack) – A group. A wolf pack is a group of wolves who live together, usually a family

Adaptations – The special tools a wolf has that help it to hunt and survive

Gait – The way your or a wolf's legs move when walking or running